The Early-Stage Life Sciences Investment Event

etc.venues, County Hall, Belvedere Road, London SE1 7PB

BioSeed is a focused & fast-paced one-day event, designed exclusively for innovative early-stage life sciences R&D companies, seeking Seed or Series-A funding, to pitch to and meet active life sciences investors.

BioSeed features a focused morning of 40 x 5-minute presentations from pre-vetted companies across a range of technology areas, complemented by an afternoon of private 1-1 follow-on partnering meetings and a relaxed drinks reception.

BioSeed is exclusively for:

- Innovative life sciences R&D companies (biotechs, medtechs, platform technology providers, healthtec, digital tech) actively seeking Seed or Series A funding.
- Active life sciences investors looking for new funding opportunities across a range of technology areas
- A select number of corporate and industry sponsors
